

---

Because in addition to decreasing pge2 the docosahexaenoic acid has been demonstrated to causes apoptosis, cell death, of neural cancers without effecting normal cells and because vitamin e has been shown to reverse that effect it is important to avoid vitamin e supplements or any multiple vitamin that contains vitamin e including all tocopherols.

Follow the instructions of Dr. Mueller